

THE MAUREEN J. GARRITY SCHOLARSHIP FOR WOMEN

The Maureen J. Garrity Scholarship for Women was established to honor Maureen Garrity, a long-time supporter and volunteer with the Pepsi Little People's Golf Championships, who passed away in December of 2018.

Maureen spent 34 years at the University of Colorado School of Medicine, and was particularly impactful in supporting student-led programs on social determinants of health, leadership and community service.

This merit scholarship was established to support the education of women who participate in the Pepsi Little People's Golf Championships. The recipient(s) should be a high school junior or senior, graduating in 2021 or 2022, with an unweighted grade-point average of 3.5 or above, who intends to pursue a college degree, and who competes in and completes the 2021 Pepsi Little People's Golf Championships.

This Scholarship will fund the recipient in an amount between $500-$2000 for her continuing education, as indicated in her personal statement.

The Recipient will be notified of her selection prior to the 2021 Pepsi Little People's, and will be honored at the Prize Presentation following completion of play on Wednesday, June 23, 2021.

To apply:

- Write a personal essay describing yourself, your career aspirations, and any community service you have performed. The statement should be no longer than two single-spaced pages in 12-point font.
- Attach a current high school transcript
- Complete the application below.
- Submit these documents as pdf files to the Maureen J. Garrity Scholarship for Women at ryannan@me.com, no later than Friday, May 21, 2021.
